

Good Shepherd Worship and Music Committee
Survey – New Worship Setting

As Now the Feast and Celebration by Marty Haugen is the first setting we have used that is not contained in a service book, the Worship & Music Committee is interested to know what you think of this liturgical setting. Please click the circle indicating the response below that best reflects your opinion. If you would also like to share an optional comment, you may click in the text box and type to do so.

You may click the Clear button below if you would like to erase your Comment and start over. You may Click the Print button to print out your Survey.

Please return this survey either by mailing it to the church office, handing it to an usher as you enter or leave worship, or by dropping it into the collection plate during worship.

Thank you, in advance, for your assistance. Your response is important.

I like the new setting a lot		I like the new setting a little		I am neutral toward the new setting		I do not like the new setting a little		I really do not like the new setting
------------------------------	--	---------------------------------	--	-------------------------------------	--	--	--	--------------------------------------

Optional Comments: